

Benefits of being FISAF International member

In the field of Competition

1. Possibility to use a title „Proud member of FISAF International” and use the logo and name according to the Graphic manual and official instructions
2. Possibility to compete at official Europeans and Worlds Championships and International Opens organized by FISAF International or to compete at International or National Open Championships of other FISAF International member country
3. Exchange of know-how, knowledge and experiences in all areas of the field of Competitions
4. Possibility to contact international judges and specialists to help to develop sport aerobic, fitness and hip hop unite in their country
5. Possibility to use networking of officials, judges, coaches, competitors during the official events (ECH, WCH etc.), or on new web pages (to be launched in the middle of 2012) – special communication tool will be created
6. Possibility to nominate judges for international events of FISAF International
7. Possibility to nominate officials to the Executive Committee and other specialized Committees (According to Articles of Association and Internal Acts of Association of FISAF International)
8. Possibility to direct the development of our sport disciplines through official representatives of country member at Annual General Assembly
9. Possibility to create educational programs for trainers in the competition field (sport aerobic, fitness teams, hip hop)
10. Possibility to apply for the organization of FISAF International events
11. Possibility to search routines in archives on new web pages (during the year 2012)
12. Registration and certification of international judges
13. Possibility to use official FISAF International Tabulation system and FRF program

Benefits of being FISAF International member

In the field of Education

1. Possibility to use a title „Proud member of FISAF International” and use the logo and the name according to the Graphic manual and official instructions
2. Possibility to cooperate in different educational projects (FISAF International own projects, projects of other international federations)
3. Exchange of know-how, knowledge and experiences in all areas of the field of Education
4. Possibility to contact international instructors and specialists to help to develop education of instructors, coaches, judges and other specialists
5. Possibility to use networking of instructors and specialists from the field of education, academics of other member countries etc. during the official events (conventions, festivals etc.), or on new web pages (to be launched in the middle of 2012) – special communication tool will be created
6. Possibility to send international instructors to the events of FISAF International member countries
7. Possibility to nominate officials to the Executive Committee and other specialized Committees (According to Articles of Association and Internal Acts of Association of FISAF International)
8. Possibility to direct the development of our educational system through official representatives of country member at Annual General Assembly
9. Registration and certification of international instructors

Benefits of being FISAF International member

Additional benefits:

1. Exchange of business contacts
2. Cross marketing and networking
3. To use register of officials, judges, coaches, competitors and FITNESS INSTRUCTORS
4. To present events (from both fields competition and education) in the calendar of the FISAF International official web pages
5. To use good practices from both fields competition and education from other member countries in their own country
6. To make sponsorship deals through the FISAF International communication (web pages, Bulletins, Newsletters, Magazines etc.)
7. First hand feedback on international developments